

What country owns the Canary Islands?

Spain

What river flows through the Grand Canyon in the USA?

Colorado

Which English football club won the League and FA Cup "double" in 1986?

Liverpool

What is the lightest of all the elements and has the atomic number 1?

Hydrogen

Before the French Revolution in 1789, who is reported to have said "Let them eat cake"?

Marie Antoinette

Which note does an orchestra tune to?

A

Who was voted European Footballer of the Year for 2000?

Luis Figo

What is the capital city of Morocco?

Rabat

In the world of weaponry, what do the initials ICBM stand for?

Inter-continental Ballistic Missile

In the medical world what do the initials ENT stand for?

Ear Nose and Throat

What country has an area of approximately 3.85 million square miles, a population of 29 million and her flag is coloured red and white?

Canada

Which author and comedian has released the novels "Time for Bed" and "Whatever Love Means"?

David Baddiel

Which Commonwealth country had the Prime Ministers Bill McMahon, Edward Whitlam and John Frasier in the 1970s?

Australia

What colour light is displayed from the starboard side of a ship?

Green

Who was the leader of the USSR when Yuri Gagarin became the first man to go into space?

Nikita Krushchev

Who played Edmund Blackadder in the BBC comedy series Blackadder?

Rowan Atkinson

Which mountain range runs along the west coast of South America for over 4,000 miles?

Andes

What is the SI unit for time?

Second (Minutes/Hours/Days etc are all incorrect, they are derived from seconds)

For which two films did Steven Spielberg win the Best Director Oscar?

Schindler's List and Saving Private Ryan

Which male athlete won 4 gold medals at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics for the 100 metres, 200 metres, 400 metre relay and the long jump?

Carl Lewis

What country owns the Canary Islands?

Spain

What river flows through the Grand Canyon in the USA?

Colorado

Which English football club won the League and FA Cup "double" in 1986?

Liverpool

What is the lightest of all the elements and has the atomic number 1?

Hydrogen

Before the French Revolution in 1789, who is reported to have said "Let them eat cake"?

Marie Antoinette

Which note does an orchestra tune to?

A

Who was voted European Footballer of the Year for 2000?

Luis Figo

What is the capital city of Morocco?

Rabat

In the world of weaponry, what do the initials ICBM stand for?

Inter-continental Ballistic Missile

In the medical world what do the initials ENT stand for?

Ear Nose and Throat

What country has an area of approximately 3.85 million square miles, a population of 29 million and her flag is coloured red and white?

Canada

Which author and comedian has released the novels "Time for Bed" and "Whatever Love Means"?

David Baddiel

Which Commonwealth country had the Prime Ministers Bill McMahon, Edward Whitlam and John Frasier in the 1970s?

Australia

What colour light is displayed from the starboard side of a ship?

Green

Who was the leader of the USSR when Yuri Gagarin became the first man to go into space?

Nikita Krushchev

Who played Edmund Blackadder in the BBC comedy series Blackadder?

Rowan Atkinson

Which mountain range runs along the west coast of South America for over 4,000 miles?

Andes

What is the SI unit for time?

Second (Minutes/Hours/Days etc are all incorrect, they are derived from seconds)

For which two films did Steven Spielberg win the Best Director Oscar?

Schindler's List and Saving Private Ryan

Which male athlete won 4 gold medals at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics for the 100 metres, 200 metres, 400 metre relay and the long jump?

Carl Lewis